

Academy of Children's Theatre

Summer 2010

Storybook Theatre (Preschool – 2nd) .....

Does your child love to be "on stage" or is your child shy around others? Either way, this class will help them channel their inner actor. Students will learn to use their acting tools to tell a story, and use their imaginations to create characters. If your child loves storytelling or make believe this is a great class to spark their imagination and give them a chance to shine while they pretend, invent, and learn theatre skills.

Schedule: July 12-15, 9:00-10:00 am Tuition: $25.00

Theatre 101 (3rd-8th grades) .....

This introductory theatre class will teach children the basics of theatre and what it takes to put on a production. Theatre terminology, stage directions, and beginning acting are among the new skills presented.

Schedule: July 12-15 • 10:00-12:00 pm Tuition: $25.00

First Impressions: Auditioning (6th-12th grades) .....

This class will cover the fundamentals of the auditioning process. How to choose a monologue, what songs work best, and resume building will help strengthen their confidence and be able to nail that next audition.

Schedule: June 28 - July 1 • 9:00-10:00 am Tuition: $25.00

Improving Improv (6th-12th grades) .....

This class will be taught by Michael Hauschild, a graduate of New York's American Musical and Dramatic Academy. Mike has also trained with Second City Improv in Los Angeles as well as Upright Citizen's Brigade in New York. Mike spent several years performing around the United States with The Skinny Improv group and has recently appeared in the Off-Broadway show, Tuesday Night Poker. Using this vital acting skill, students will learn the fundamentals of improvisational comedy through dialogue, teamwork, scene development and character building. Both long form and comedic improv will be covered as they learn to seize the moment and utilize their creative thinking and acting abilities.

Schedule: June 28 - July 1 • 10:00-12:00 pm Tuition: $35.00

Broadway Bound: Musical Theatre (3rd-8th grades) .....

This introductory musical theatre class will emphasize singing, dancing, and movement for the stage as well as the development of fundamental acting skills.

Schedule: July 5th-8th • 1:00-3:00 pm Tuition: $25.00

Creating a "Monster": Makeup (3rd- 12th grades) .....

Not just for girls, this makeup class will cover the basics of stage makeup. Students will learn the difference between street and stage makeup, explore the creation of characters, make bruises and other wounds, and learn to transform themselves and others.

Schedule: July 26-30 • 10:00-12:00 pm Tuition: $30.00 (includes supplies)
